TORNADO IN THE WEST
Lives Lost and Property Destroyed In South Dakota.

SEVEN KILLED, OTHERS MAY DIE.

Farm Buildings, a Church and a School- house Wiped Out, Near Bijou Hills. Storm Destroyed Considerable Property In Hamilton County.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., May 29.—Word has reached here of a disastrous and fatal tornado which passed over the country in the vicinity of Bijou hills, 25 miles south of this city, resulting in the death of seven persons and the serious injury of three others.

The killed were:
Charles Peterson, six children of Charles Peterson, ranging in age from 3 to 15 years.

The wife and two remaining children were so badly injured they may also die.

The tornado formed in plain view of hundreds of people and moved in a southerly course. The first place reached was that of Anna Coden, which was totally destroyed. The storm then struck a church and a schoolhouse, after which it reached the Peterson place.

The dead and injured there were strewn all about the premises, all being crushed and mangled in a shocking manner while the buildings were crushed to splinters.

The tornado next destroyed the Criegor premises, then passed into the range of hills skirting the Missouri river, where it appears to have been dissipated.

The path covered by the storm was only about 20 rods wide and about three miles in length, but everything within that section was completely annihilated. Much live stock was killed.

The wind was accompanied by a heavy fall of rain and hail, the latter being as large as goose eggs.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., May 29.—A tornado passed through the northern part of Hamilton county, destroying from $25,000 to $40,000 worth of property, including 15 dwellings, a church, a schoolhouse and two iron bridges across the river. Orchards, groves and fences were leveled and much stock killed.

Char. Reed, 16 inches in diameter, were broken off or uprooted as easily as corn-hills.

FATAL WRECK IN IOWA.
Due to a Washout—Eight People Killed. Man Died After Having His Arm Sawed Off.

WATERLOO, Ia., May 29.—The through train from Chicago to Minneapolis over the Rock Island and Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern railways was wrecked at the crossing of Sink creek, about four miles southeast of this place. Nine persons were killed and 23 injured. One man died afterward.

The dead were:
E. L. Arnold, lumberman, Minneapolis.
W. A. McLaughlin, Muskogean, Mich.
R. H. Schwartz, Alton, Ill.
David Hall, Minneapolis.
F. S. Carpenter, St. Louis.
—Hawkins, Pullman conductor.
George Wainwright, train conductor.
Will Spillman, Waterloo.

One unknown person.
A cloudburst had washed the sand and gravel roadbed, leaving the track unsupported for a stretch of 20 feet. The rails and ties held together and there was nothing to indicate the insecurity of the road. The engine struck the washout and was derailed in the ditch behind the track and behind it the cars were piled up in a confused heap. The engineer and fireman jumped from the train and escaped with slight injuries.

Mr. Schwette of Alton, Ill., was brought to this city alive, but died later. He was badly cut about the head and it was evident from the beginning that his injuries were fatal. He was on his way to Minneapolis where he was to be married. He asked his physician to telegraph his father and his sweetheart. "Tell her," he gasped, "that I have been detained by a wreck and cannot keep the appointment on time. Don't say anything more."

Will Spillman, a drummer for a St. Louis tobacco house, who made his headquarters at Waterloo, was found in the passenger coach, his arm crushed between the front of the sleeper and the side of the coach. He did not lose consciousness, but begged that his arm be saved off so as to release him. Spillman gripped his teeth and looked on while his arm was amputated with a common handsaw, not a mean coming from the poor fellow. After he was released Spillman walked almost unassisted to a nearby farmhouse. He was terribly weakened by loss of blood, however, and died.

A Terrific Hailstorm.
HASTINGS, Neb., May 29.—A terrific hailstorm struck this city and continued about 15 minutes, during which time over 2,000 panes of glass were broken, fruit and grain destroyed and several persons hurt. The hailstones were as large as eggs and came down with such force as to kill many chickens, knock birds out of trees and break shutters of windows.

Colored Porter Killed In Wreck.
QUINCY, La., May 29.—A Chicago and Great Western passenger train was wrecked about two miles north of here. One person, the colored porter, was killed. Several men and women on the train were hurt or less injured. The train was running over lowlands when the track began to settle and the train was derailed.

Terrific Storms In Iowa.
CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 29.—Terrific storms swept over Iowa, at Tama, there was almost a cloudburst and much damage done. Five persons were injured by a small tornado which passed over Kosciusko. It was reported that Dows was destroyed by a tornado.

CAPTAIN TILLEY MISSING.
Signal Service Man Attacked by Natives at Escalante, Island of Negros.

Worst Is Feared.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Gen. Greely received a telegram from Major Thompson at Manila reporting that a party landing for the repair of the cable at Escalante, island of Negros, had been treacherously attacked by natives, that Captain George H. Tilley, signal corps, was missing and that the worst was feared. Tilley's services in the Philippines have been marked by his superiors with courage and zeal that his superiors placed him in the foremost rank of subordinate officers.

The cable operations referred to are not those of the signal corps, but of the Eastern Extension Cable company that has been permitted to repair and replace certain cables in the Visayan islands. Tilley doubtless accompanied the expedition as the representative of the United States, the supervision of all the telegraph lines and cables being a part of his duties. No other casualties in the signal corps have been as yet reported in this expedition. Tilley was appointed from California.

JESUIT GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Celebration at the Famous Catholic Church In Detroit—Prominent Prelates Participated.

DETROIT, May 29.—The Jesuit church of S. S. Peter and Paul celebrated its golden jubilee Sunday with grand and solemn ceremonies and services. The church building itself was completed more than half a century ago, but the annual labors of the Jesuit Fathers are features of history inseparable from the earliest records of civilization in this region.

The morning services consisted of celebration of pontifical mass. Bishop Foley officiating. Rev. Camillus Paul Maes, D. D., bishop of Covington, preached the jubilee sermon. Many priests from other cities participated in the service with the Detroit clergy, also the alumni of Leveque college, the children of the parish joining in the song services. The service closed with Haydn's "The Heavens are Telling," by chorists and children.

Last evening pontifical vesper services were celebrated, followed by a lecture on "Catholicity In Detroit," by Rev. Walter Elliott, C. S. P., of New York.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.
Meetings Induced With Much Religious fervor Held In Grand Rapids. Immense Audiences.

GRAND RAPIDS, May 29.—Delegates who have been attending the Y. M. C. A. International Biennial convention filled the pulpits of nearly all the churches both morning and evening.

In the afternoon a general mass meeting for men only was held in the Auditorium, with an address on "Why Are Not More Young Men Becoming Christians?" by S. M. Sayford of Boston. There was an immense audience and after Mr. Sayford's address the services took an evangelistic turn and intense religious enthusiasm prevailed.

Old time hymns were sung with a

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK
Called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and drug stores who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant, but a healthy food and children as well as adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about one-fourth as much as coffee. Complexion and Hair Specialists.

The brilliant complexions of women in the more exclusive circles of New York society are not explained by the theories of the fashion of the world of fashion are hard workers. Yet they keep their good looks even when they are old. How do they manage it? THE MISSES BELL, of 75 Fifth Avenue, New York, themselves connected with some of the most noted and honored families in the metropolis, have answered the question. They have prepared for the use of women in general, five preparations for improving the complexion and the hair.

The Misses BELL'S COMPLEXION TONIC
Is an external application, the presence of which on the face cannot be detected. It is perfectly harmless even to the most delicate skin, it is a sure and quick cure for all roughness and eruptions. It acts on the skin as a tonic, producing a natural complexion. Cosmetically it removes pimples, freckles, blackheads, moths, liver spots, eczema, redness, oiliness and all discolored and imperfections of the skin. Price, $1 a bottle.

The Misses BELL'S HAIR TONIC
Cures dandruff and prevents any return of it, stops that annoying itching of the scalp and makes the hair strong, soft and lustrous. It is especially helpful to persons whose hair is thin, dry and liable to fall out. The tonic cleanses the scalp, keeps the hair in its natural growth and keeps it from falling out. Price, $1 a bottle.

The Misses BELL'S SKIN FOOD
Is a soft, creamy, exquisitely perfumed ointment, which helps the action of the Tonic, and, in mild cases of roughness, redness, pimples, etc., is a cure in itself. It clears the face of the skin of all impurities and feeds it by building up the texture and making the flesh beneath it solid and firm. Price, 75 cents per jar.

Free
I have the Misses' Bell's toilet preparations on sale at my store.
